

23rd Annual AIA Orlando Powwow

Youth Organization Day

November 8, 2009

Central Florida Fairgrounds
4603 W. Colonial Dr.
Orlando, FL 32808

Schedule

Activities: 10:00a.m.- 1:00p.m.
Grand Entry: 1:00p.m.
Powwow open until 5:00p.m.

The American Indian Association of Florida, Inc. invites youth organizations to join us in a celebration of Native American culture. November is designated as Native American Heritage month and our Powwow offers a hands-on opportunity to experience Native American music, dance, storytelling, arts and crafts, demonstrations, and food.

All Youth Organizations are welcome including Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, YMCA Indian Guides, home-school groups and religious youth groups!

Admission

$5.00 per youth group member
Chaperones - One free per 10 paid group members
Additional chaperones, siblings or family members - $5.00
Paid admission includes special program in arena circle , fry bread sample and craft kit

For more information:

Peggy Wolfe (407) 327-8207
Email: peggywolfe@aiaofflorida.org
Website: www.aiaofflorida.org

We request that you register by Monday, October 5th. No late registrations will be accepted. Individual youth organization members may register, but must be accompanied by an adult. Checks and registration forms should be mailed in advance to:

AIA of Florida, c/o Peggy Wolfe/153 Clyde Ave/Longwood, FL 32750
You will receive a confirmation phone call and instructions two weeks prior to the event.

Registration Form

Leader/Contact Information:

Name _____

Organization Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Number of people registering:

_____ youth members _____ adults

_____ siblings _____ others

Amount enclosed for payment _____